

MUSIC

Corten table

Music is the corten steel furniture line inspired by the shape of a cello. The table is characterized by a refined and essential design, in which the silhouette of the cello starts from its handle placed on a leg of the table and then continues with the body and the "f holes" on the table top. Music, which praises the beauty of stringed instruments, gives a touch of personal harmony to indoor or outdoor spaces. The table is available in steel with different finishes.
